INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

From time to time, a variety of difficult issues arise when it is necessary to transfer the authority over juvenile delinquency and dependency cases from one county to another. Working collaboratively, the court can make it easier for court staff, probation officers, social workers, attorneys and litigants to understand the transfer process and administer these cases efficiently.

On April 8, 2013, Riverside County hosted a meeting to discuss the potential enactment of an Intercounty Transfer Protocol for the Southern California counties. Present at the meeting were Juvenile Presiding Judges and administrative staff from Orange, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, Riverside and San Diego; all present unanimously agreed to develop a protocol. After the initial meeting in April, Imperial County joined the group in support of the transfer protocol. A second meeting was held on October 2, 2013 to discuss the various aspects of the Southern California Intercounty Transfer Protocol.

At the October 2, 2013 and November 20, 2013 meetings, led by Judge Douglas Hatchimonji from Orange County, a substantial number of issues were addressed, including: identifying key contact persons in each county; uniform forms and orders; advance confirmation of hearing dates in the transfer-in county; and timing of the transfer before and after disposition. On February 5, 2014, a joint meeting of child welfare agencies, probation departments, juvenile court judges, and court personnel was held to review and discuss the Southern California Intercounty Transfer Protocol.

Orange County has agreed to host a secured regional website. The website page will contain the protocol and corresponding forms, contact information, schedule of hearing dates and times of each jurisdiction and links to each jurisdiction's website for quick access to court locations and driving directions.

Additionally, the transfer of juvenile case files between counties has always required a great deal of court resources in the processing, copying and distribution of the files. Therefore, a new system for the electronic transfer of case files was developed by Riverside Superior Court called eCase eXchange. This program allows authorized staff to upload and encrypt PDF versions of case files, generates electronic certifications and receipts for record automatically, and automates other functionality that will reduce, if not eliminate, manual processing, thus yielding considerable time and cost savings.

The Presiding Judges of the Juvenile Courts, of the Superior Courts, for the counties of Los Angeles, San Diego, San Bernardino, Riverside, Imperial and Orange are committed to making the Intercounty Transfer Protocol a permanent procedure for the Southern California counties. The protocol shall first be enacted as a pilot project for six months commencing on August 4, 2014. The purpose of the pilot is to refine the provisions of the protocol, as needed, based on the application of the protocol procedures.

CHAPTER ONE: COMMUNICATION

A. LEAD COURT

1. Every two years,¹ one court shall be designated as the lead court to be responsible for disseminating ongoing information and changes related to the protocol. In addition, each court shall maintain its own contact list of participating courts and ancillary agencies.
2. The lead court shall maintain the protocol and other relevant information on a regional website specifically designed for access by the participating counties.
3. Each court shall maintain its own contact list and notify each county's point of contact of any changes.

B. POINT OF CONTACT FOR THE COURT

1. Each court shall identify two court staff persons to serve as the points of contact for delinquency, dependency, and nonminor dependent cases. One staff person will be designated as the primary point of contact, and the other staff person designated as the secondary point of contact.
2. Each court shall post the following information on the regional website for its designated court contacts: name, title, mailing address, phone number and email address.
3. Each court shall provide the names and contact information for staff in the respective probation and child welfare departments that will be identified as the designated contact for those county entities.
4. Each court's primary point of contact shall immediately notify the lead court when contact information for the court, probation department or child welfare department changes.
5. Each court's primary point of contact shall receive and disseminate relevant information regarding the protocol to other agencies in its jurisdiction.

C. REGIONAL SECURE WEBSITE AND INDIVIDUAL COURT INTERNET WEB PAGES

Orange County Superior Court shall host the regional secure website for posting the following information:

1. Designated hearing days, times and court location(s) for transfer-in hearings.

The individual website will contain overview information, the protocol and forms needed by the public. Riverside Superior Court shall post the protocol and forms on its court internet website, and the other participating courts will link to the protocol and forms from their respective web pages.

D. CHANGES TO PROTOCOL

This section is deferred pending the conclusion of the pilot program.

CHAPTER TWO: APPROPRIATENESS OF TRANSFER (DELINQUENCY AND DEPENDENCY)

A. STANDARD FOR DETERMINING IF A CASE SHOULD BE TRANSFERRED

Delinquency and dependency cases shall be transferred only if the sending court determines all of the following pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 5.610(a):²

1. The minor's parent or legal guardian resides in the proposed receiving county;³
 2. The transfer is in the minor's best interest; and
 3. The level of services required by the minor and family can be met in the proposed receiving county.

B. TIMING OF TRANSFER OF DELINQUENCY CASES

1. The court shall not transfer a delinquency court case until after making jurisdictional findings as established in Rule 5.610(c)(2) (i.e., an admission is entered or one or more charges are found true at trial).
 - a) If at the time of the jurisdiction hearing, the minor's parent or legal guardian is known to reside in another county, the sending court shall not conduct the disposition hearing and shall thereafter transfer the case out to the other county.
 - b) If the minor refuses to waive time for disposition, the sending court may find good cause to schedule the matter beyond the statutory 10-day period pursuant to WIC § 682. [Rule 5.610(c)(2) and (e)]
 2. On WIC §§ 725, 790 and wardship cases, the court may transfer the case after the court has issued 725, 790 or wardship disposition orders. The receiving county will honor the WIC §§ 725 and 790 case disposition. If WIC §§ 725 and 790 is not being considered, the sending court will comply with 1 above.
 3. Absent extraordinary circumstances, cases shall not be transferred post 725, 790 or wardship order if there are fewer than 60-days before the next scheduled review hearing.

² All further 'Rule' references are to the California Rules of Court.

³ See WIC §§ 375, 750, and Rule 5.610(a), (b) and (c) regarding residency guidelines for intercounty transfer. Pursuant to WIC §§ 375 and 750, no case shall be transferred to the county of residence of an adult (including relatives) who has custody of the child either on a voluntary basis or as a result of a court-ordered placement unless that person is a parent or legal guardian.

DEPENDENCY CASES

1. Except under unusual circumstances, the court shall not transfer a dependency case until after jurisdictional findings are made and the petition is sustained. The sending court may conduct the disposition hearing and may transfer the case prior to disposition being imposed. [Rule 5.610(c)(3)]

Unusual circumstances include, but are not limited to: (1) a lengthy trial which would require transcripts for the receiving county to understand the factual circumstances and, (2) any other complex legal/factual circumstance(s).

2. If the child or parent/guardian refuses to waive time for disposition, the sending court may find good cause to schedule the matter beyond the statutory 60-day period pursuant to WIC § 352. [Rule 5.610(e)]
3. No case shall be transferred absent the appropriate findings by the sending county for good cause to continue and findings for exceptional circumstances causing the disposition hearing to be scheduled more than 60-days after the minor was ordered removed or detained.
4. A case shall not be transferred prior to disposition if more than 120 days has transpired from the date of the minor's removal.
5. Absent extraordinary circumstances, a case shall not be transferred out less than 90 days prior to the next scheduled review hearing. Review hearings include those under WIC §§ 366.21(e), 366.21(f), 366.22, 366.25, and 366.3.

D. OUT-OF-HOME
PLACEMENT CASES
(DELINQUENCY AND DEPENDENCY)

This section addresses the intercounty transfer of out-of-home placement cases and does not prohibit out-of-county placements.

1. The following rules apply before the termination of family reunification services.
 - a) Cases may be transferred out only to the county of residence of the parent/legal guardian. Residency is defined as the parent/legal guardian being domiciled in the county for a minimum of 30 days and having communicated an intent to remain in that county.
 - b) Cases shall not be transferred out based on the physical location of the child.
 - c) Cases shall not be transferred out based on the county of residence of a relative who has not achieved the status of court-appointed legal guardian. This provision does not impact out-of-county placement for courtesy supervision purposes; only the transfer of jurisdiction. [WIC § 755]

2. The following rules apply after the termination of family reunification services and/or the setting of a selection and implementation hearing pursuant to WIC § 366.26.
 - a) There is a presumption that no case in this phase shall be transferred.
 - b) A transfer-out motion shall not be filed by the probation officer or social worker unless the chief probation officers or child welfare directors (or designees) in the sending and receiving counties confer and agree that it is in the best interests of the child to do so, and that there are available and appropriate services in the proposed receiving county. Absent a joint recommendation, the position of each agency shall be reflected in the probation officer's or social worker's transfer-out motion.
 - c) If the transfer-out motion is filed by a child's or parent's attorney, the probation officer or social worker shall file a report with the court prior to the hearing on the transfer-out motion. The report shall include the communication information and agreements described in paragraph b above.

E. DELINQUENT MATTERS REGARDING CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS AND REHABILITATION, DIVISION OF JUVENILE JUSTICE

Except under unusual circumstances, for any crimes committed in a facility of the California Department of the Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Justice facility, the county in which the crimes occurred shall conduct both the jurisdictional and disposition hearings. Otherwise, the matter shall not be transferred back to the originating committing county.⁴

⁴ The county responsible for the most recent juvenile court commitment will not be billed by DJF for the costs of confinement because the commitment is the result of prosecution requested by the Division of Juvenile Facilities. In that case, the county previously responsible for the ward will continue to be billed. [California Code of Regulations, Title 15, Division 4, Chapter 1.4, Subchapter 1, Article 2, Section 4143.4(d).]

Examples of sealed documents include, but are not limited to: deferred entry of judgment petitions and associated documents, petitions sealed pursuant to WIC § 781, and any other document ordered sealed by the court.

5. Prepare the documents to be scanned as a Portable Document Format (PDF) document. Depending on how the documents have been grouped, the clerk may have more than one PDF file to scan.

B. SENDING FILE
EXCHANGE

The clerk of the sending court shall send the transfer electronically using the eCase eXchange program.

1. The clerk will upload the Portable Document Format (PDF) documents prepared in Section A to the program following the eCase eXchange Transfer-Out Procedure located on the regional secure website outlined in Chapter One, Section C.
2. The clerk from the sending court will reference in the 'comment' section of the program the hearing date, time, and location scheduled by the sending court for the transfer-in hearing.
3. The program prepares the Certification of Transfer of Documents certifying the documents are true and correct copies of the originals.
4. Time Frames

The court file should be transferred within three (3) court days of the transfer-out order.
 - b) All Dependency Cases and Out-of-Custody Delinquency Cases:

The court clerk will use the eCase eXchange program to transmit a certified copy of the file following the eCase eXchange Transfer-Out Procedure located on the regional website.

D. EXHIBITS

1. Unless requested by the receiving court, the sending court shall not transfer any hearing or trial exhibits to the receiving court.
2. The sending court shall retain the exhibits until notified by the receiving court that the matter is concluded and that the exhibits can be returned to their rightful owners and/or destroyed.
3. If the receiving court needs the exhibits, the receiving court shall contact the sending court to make arrangements for the delivery of the exhibits.

- a) If exhibits are needed by the receiving court, an email requesting the exhibits shall be sent to the designated contact for the sending court.
- b) The receiving court shall then retain custody of the exhibits until it is appropriate to return them to their rightful owners and/or destroy them, in accordance with statute.

E. ERRORS MADE BY THE SENDING COURT

Errors by the sending court shall be corrected as follows:

1. If a case is ordered transferred to one county, but is inadvertently electronically sent to another county (e.g., the case is ordered transferred to San Diego, but the court record is received by San Bernardino), the court receiving the documents shall automatically electronically forward the documents to the proper court without further court order using the eCase eXchange program.
2. If a case is ordered transferred to one county, but the clerk inadvertently types the wrong county name on the order (e.g., the case is ordered transferred to Riverside County, but the courtroom clerk inadvertently types Orange County on the order), the court receiving the documents shall:
 - a) Automatically electronically forward them to the proper court without further court order; and
 - b) Contact the sending court to advise them of the error so that an amended transfer order can be prepared and sent electronically to the proper county.

CHAPTER EIGHT: PREPARATION OF THE AGENCY FILE TO THE RECEIVING COUNTY AGENCY AND TRANSPORTATION

A. PROBATION FILE Within seven (7) business days of the transfer-out hearing if the minor is detained, and fifteen (15) business days if the minor is not detained, the probation department in the sending county shall prepare and transmit a copy of all documents in the original probation file to the probation department in the receiving county.

The probation department in the sending county shall retain the original documents. It is not necessary for the copies to be certified.

B. SOCIAL WORKER FILE AND RELEASING CWS/CMS DATA

1. Within 24 hours of the transfer-out court order, the social worker shall modify the child welfare system/case management system (CWS/CMS) to add the receiving county's code to allow access to the system by both the sending county and the receiving county. After the acceptance of the transfer, the receiving county shall be designated as "primary" and the sending county will retain access and be designated as the "secondary."
 2. Within seven (7) business days of the transfer-out hearing, the social worker in the sending county shall prepare and transmit a copy of all documents in the original social worker file that are not contained in CWS/CMS, other than court minute orders, to the child welfare agency in the receiving county. The copies in the file need not be certified.
 3. The sending county shall retain the original documents. The following documents, if not accessible via CWS/CMS, shall be placed in reverse chronological order (the newest document on top; the oldest document on the bottom):
 - a) Individual education plan (IEP) possessed by the child welfare agency and/or the name and address of the school district where the most current IEP is on file;
 - b) Home study reports;
 - c) Correspondence from counselors;
 - d) Treatment provider reports;
 - e) Health and education passport information; and
 - f) Confidential address information.

C.
TRANSPORTATION OF MINOR OR CHILD

The minor or dependent child shall be physically transported to the receiving county as follows:

1. For delinquency in-custody matters, the probation department of the sending county shall be responsible for transportation of the minor to the receiving county detention facility. [See Chapter Six, Section B for transportation timeframe]
2. For delinquency out-of-custody matters, the minor's parent, legal guardian or foster care provider shall arrange for transportation of the minor to the receiving court.
3. For dependency matters, if the child or the child's attorney in the receiving county requests that the child attend the initial hearing, the sending and receiving county's child welfare office shall discuss and coordinate transportation.

D. CONTINUATION OF RESPONSIBILITY

The sending county's child welfare agency or probation department shall maintain responsibility for the case, including the provision of services and supervision, until the receiving court has accepted the case at the transfer-in hearing.

The child welfare agency or probation department in the receiving county shall notify the child welfare agency or probation department in the sending county that the transfer was accepted by sending a copy of the court's minute order that the transfer was accepted.

CHAPTER NINE: TRANSFER-IN HEARING

A. RECEIVING TRANSFER DOCUMENTS

The clerk of the receiving court shall:

1. Access the eCase eXchange program to receive the transfer electronically.
2. The receiving clerk will electronically sign and date the receipt of record acknowledging receipt of the transfer. A copy of the receipt of record will be sent back electronically to the sending county with the receiving county's case number.
3. The receiving clerk will process the transfer in the receiving court's case management system according to its local practices.
4. The receiving clerk will confirm the transfer-in hearing date scheduled by the sending court and ensure that date is on the receiving court's calendar.

B. DISTRIBUTION OF TRANSFER-IN TO AGENCY

The clerk of the receiving court shall send a copy of the court file to the appropriate agency.

The court clerk will use the eCase eXchange program to transmit a copy of the file to the agency following the eCase eXchange Transfer-In procedure located on the regional website.

C. RECEIVING IN-CUSTODY MINORS FOR HEARING

Unless the probation officer in the receiving county contacts the parents to give them a date earlier than the date scheduled by the sending court, the receiving court shall not vacate the date previously set by the sending court. The date set by the sending court should always remain calendared because that was the date the parents were notified to appear in the receiving court.

D. BEFORE ACCEPTANCE

The sending court may vacate a transfer order due to a change in circumstances prior to the receiving court accepting the transfer. The transfer order may be vacated only upon good cause based on new or different facts that have been presented to the court.

The sending court will give notice to the parties and, if necessary, the proposed receiving court, that the transfer order has been vacated.

E. MANDATORY ACCEPTANCE

At the transfer-in hearing, the court shall, in all cases, issue an order accepting transfer of jurisdiction from the sending court. Under no circumstances shall the court decline to accept the transfer. [Rule 5.612]

AFTER

This section applies to delinquency, dependency, and nonminor dependent cases.

1. After formally accepting the transfer-in case, if the receiving court believes that a change of circumstances or additional facts indicate that the child does not reside in the receiving county, that court may:
 - a) Direct the child welfare agency or the probation department to seek a modification of orders under WIC § 388 or § 778 and, pursuant to this protocol, conduct a transfer-out hearing to another county if there is sufficient proof that the child's parent or legal guardian lives in another identified county; [Rule 5.612(f)] or
 - b) File a formal appeal in the sending county, seeking review by the District Court of Appeal.

CHAPTER TEN: REHEARINGS AND APPEALS

A. PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENDING COURT AFTER ORDERING TRANSFER

1. Any application pursuant to WIC § 252 for rehearing by a judge of any decision by a referee of the sending court shall be filed in, and decided by, the sending court.
2. Absent further order of the court, the filing of such an application, including an application to rehear a transfer-out order, shall not stay the transfer-out order or the scheduled transfer-in hearing date.
3. A copy of the application for rehearing filed in the sending court shall be sent to the receiving court for informational purposes.
4. After the sending court issues its ruling on the application for rehearing, a copy of the order granting or denying the rehearing shall be sent to the receiving court.
5. If the application for rehearing is granted by the sending court, the receiving county shall vacate its order accepting the transfer-in and order the case returned to the originating county to conduct the rehearing. The case shall not be returned to the receiving county unless a subsequent transfer-out order is made.

B. THIRD COUNTY TRANSFER-OUT

If the receiving court determines that the parent or legal guardian resides in a county other than either the sending county or the receiving county, the receiving court shall:

- a) Formally accept the transfer-in from the sending county; and then
- b) Conduct a separate transfer-out hearing to determine if transfer of the case to the third county resolves the court's concern. [See Chapter Nine, Section F]

C. APPEALS

1. If an appeal to the District Court of Appeal is filed by any party concerning the transfer-out order:
 - a) The receiving court shall first formally accept the transfer.
 - b) Absent further order from the District Court of Appeal or trial court, the filing of an appeal shall not stay the original transfer-out order.
 - c) The notice of appeal shall be filed in the sending court, but the clerk of that court shall send a copy of the notice to the receiving court.
 - d) The costs of preparing the court reporter's transcript of the proceedings in the sending court shall be borne by the sending county.

- e) Upon receipt of the remittitur from the District Court of Appeal, the clerk of the sending court shall send a copy to the receiving court.
2. If a formal appeal to the District Court of Appeal is filed by any party concerning any other order made in the sending court prior to the transfer-out order:
- a) The notice of appeal shall be filed in the receiving court after the disposition hearing has been held. The clerk of that court shall send a copy of the notice to the sending court so that the court reporter can be notified if there is a need to prepare the transcript of any pre-disposition proceeding.
 - b) The costs of preparing the court reporter's transcript of the proceedings in the sending court shall be borne by the sending county.
 - c) Upon receipt of the remittitur from the District Court of Appeal, the clerk of the receiving court shall send a copy to the sending court.

CHAPTER ELEVEN: COURTESY SUPERVISION

A. COURTESY SUPERVISION AUTHORIZATION

(See WIC §§ 380, 755 and Rule 5.614.) The court authorizing temporary or permanent residency shall retain jurisdiction over the ward or dependent. No court appearance shall be scheduled in the county of temporary residence.
