8.		The court ORDERS that the Department of Justice be notified of the sealing order.
9.	If thi	this order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1170.9(h):
		The petitioner is released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense(s) of which he or she has been convicted in the dismissed action.
		Dismissal of the conviction does not automatically relieve a person from the requirement to register as a sex offender under Penal Code section 290. (See, e.g., Pen. Code, § 290.5.)
	i I	c. The petitioner is not obligated to disclose the arrest on the dismissed action, or the conviction that was set aside when information concerning prior arrests or convictions is requested to be given under oath, affirmation, or otherwise, except when he or she is required to disclose the arrest, the conviction that was set aside, and the dismissed action in response to any dire question contained in any questionnaire or application for any law enforcement position.
	d.	The dismissal of the action shall be a bar to any future action based on the conduc	t charged in the dismissed action.
		In any subsequent prosecution for any other offense, a conviction that was set aside in the dismissed action may be pleaded and proved as a prior conviction and shall have the same effect as if the dismissal had not been granted.
f. A conviction that was set aside in the dismissed action may be considered a conviction for the revoking or suspending or otherwise limiting the petitioner's driving privilege on the ground of t
	g. ¯	The petitioner's DNA sample and profile in the DNA data bank shall not be removed by a dismissal.
	(Dismissal of an accusation, information, or conviction does not authorize a petitioner to own, possess, or have in his or her custody or control any firearm or prevent his or her conviction pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 29800) of Division 9 of Title 4 of Part 6.
10.	0. In addition, as required by Penal Code section 299(f), relief under Penal Code sections 17(b) or 1170.9(h) does not release petitioner from the separate administrative duty to provide specimens, samples, or print impressions under the DNA and Forensic Identification Database and Data Bank Act (Pen. Code, § 295 et seq.) if he or she was found guilty by a trier of fact, not guilty by reason of insanity, or pled no contest to a qualifying offense as defined in Penal Code section 296(a).
