MISDEMEANOR BAIL SCHEDULE.....10

AUTHORITY TO DEPART FROM THE SCHEDULE11

SECTION A: FELONY BAIL SCHEDULE

PART 1: RULES

RULE 1: Setting Bail

- A. Bail for felony crimes will be set as follows:
1. The amount set in the approved arrest warrant. In the event that the arrest warrant is for an offense that, pursuant to the Bail Schedule, would have an amount of $0, the amount in the warrant will control.
 2. The amount set pursuant to 1269c P.C. (See Rule 6(A) herein).
 3. The amount set at a hearing in court; and / or
 4. The amount set through use of this Bail Schedule.
- B. The Felony Bail Schedule consists of four parts:
1. The “Rules”.
 2. The “General Bail Amounts Chart”.
 3. The “Special Bail Amounts”; and
 4. The “Bail Amounts for Enhancements.”
- C. Review all Rules. Review the “General Bail Amounts Chart” section. Review the “Special Bail Amounts” section. If the bail amount is different, the higher amount applies.
- D. To calculate bail on any one case, take the count which imposes the longest term of incarceration, find the bail amount from the “General Bail Amounts Chart” section. Check the “Special Bail Amounts” section. If there is a conflict, use the larger sum. Next, add bail for all enhancements. The calculation is per case.
- E. “$0 bail” means that bail is not required in lieu of a signed written citation or promise to appear. The court can set bail in an amount higher than the bail schedule; however, law enforcement will have to apply for such an order under P.C. 1269c. A judge is available 24/7 to review those requests (See Rule 6(A) herein).

RULE 2: No Bail

Murder with special circumstances No Bail.

RULE 3: Attempts, Conspiracy, Solicitation, Accessories Etc.

Except as otherwise provided by this schedule, a defendant charged with conspiracy (PC 182), solicitation (PC653(f)), accessory or attempt to commit (PC 664) shall have bail set in an amount equal to the bail for the substantive offense which was the object of the conspiracy, solicitation or attempt.

Note: 182/187 PC: The bail is $1 million.

RULE 4: Multiple Counts, Multiple Cases

A. Multiple Counts:

1. For each separate crime, the single highest bail plus all applicable enhancements shall apply.

B. Multiple Cases: Calculate the bail for each case separately. A separate bail is required for each separate case.

Examples:

1. Two Separate Complaints Filed: Defendant commits two robberies on two separate dates (two separate sets of circumstances) – the applicable bail amount for each of the robbery complaints would be calculated. These are two separate cases and two separate bail bonds are required.
2. One Complaint Filed: Defendant robs a pizza store and takes money from the register and from a customer's wallet. The bail is the amount for the most serious criminal charge plus bail for any enhancements.

RULE 5: Enhancements / Strikes

A. Enhancements:

If it is alleged in the Complaint or Information, or it is evident from other information made available to the Court, that one or more punishment enhancements under this schedule are applicable, the bail amount specifically described for each applicable enhancement shall be added cumulatively to the bail set forth for the specified offense. See Part 4, Bail Amounts for Enhancements to Felonies. For unlisted enhancements, see Part 2, The General Bail Amounts Chart.

B. Strikes:

If it is alleged in the Complaint or Information, or it is evident from other information made available to the Court, that there is a strike prior within the meaning of Penal Code Sections 667 and 1170.12 the additional bail shall be calculated as follows:

- (1)(a) If the defendant has previously been convicted of one strike, the bail is enhanced by $50,000.
 - (b) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more strikes, the bail is enhanced by $50,000 per strike, if the current crime is non-serious and non-violent crime.
 - (c) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more strikes, and, if any of the exceptions contained in section 667(e)(C)(i-iv) apply, then the total bail is $1,000,000.
- (2) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more serious or violent felonies and the current crime is a serious or violent felony, then the total bail is $1,000,000.

RULE 6: Bail Increase / Source of Bail Funds

A. Bail Increase (P.C.1269c)

In the event that law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that the amount of bail set forth in the Bail Schedule is insufficient to assure a defendant's appearance or to assure protection of a victim or family member of a victim, and/or public safety, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a P.C. 1269c. declaration requesting an order setting higher bail. Once a copy of the P.C. 1269c form has been given to the booking officer, no one shall release the defendant except at the higher requested bail. The arresting officer then has eight (8) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If no Magistrate approved 1269c form is provided to the booking officer within eight (8) hours of the initial booking, then the defendant may be released at the amount of bail as indicated by the Bail Schedule. Any Magistrate approved 1269c form must be filed with the Complaint. If a defendant believes bail is excessive, he or she (personally or through an attorney, friend or family member) may also exercise the application procedures set forth in Penal Code Section 1269c. Bail shall not be modified (nor shall a defendant be released on his or her own recognizance), where a defendant is charged with a crime enumerated in Penal Code Section 1270.1, without compliance with the hearing procedures set forth in that section.

B. Source of Bail Funds (P.C. 1275.1)

In the event that law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that bail has been or may be obtained by felonious means, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a declaration requesting an order pursuant to Section P.C. 1275.1. Once a copy of the P.C. 1275.1 form has been given to the booking officer, no one may release the defendant. The arresting officer has twenty-four (24) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If a Magistrate approves the P.C. 1275.1 application, the defendant may not be released except upon the order of a Judge after a noticed hearing in Court. If no Magistrate approved P.C. 1275.1 form is provided to the booking officer within twenty-four (24) hours of the initial booking, then the defendant may be released upon whatever bail is set. Any Magistrate approved P.C. 1275.1 form must be filed with the Complaint or filed with the court if the complaint has already been filed.

RULE 7: Violation of Probation / Mandatory Supervision

Probation:

a) Felony:

In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of felony probation shall be $50,000. In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of misdemeanor probation shall be $5000.

b) Mandatory Supervision:

In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of mandatory supervision shall be $100,000.

RULE 8: ECONOMIC LOSS

If the alleged economic loss is greater than the bail schedule, the bail shall be the amount of the loss, rounded to the next higher thousand dollar level (i.e., if the economic loss is $58,425, the bail is $59,000).
